(t.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) and other companies which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, or companies any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable, and to hold, use, carry out, exercise, enjoy, and to comply with and, if deemed advisable, sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, lease, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the or any of the same or any interest therein:

(u.) To apply for, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, use, exercise, or develop, sell, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account any process, improvement, mechanism or device, or any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, privileges, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(v.) To sell any patent, rights, or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it, or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to allow to be used or otherwise deal with or turn to account any invention, patent, or privilege in which the Company may be interested:

(w.) To contribute to, or subsidize or otherwise assist, aid, or take part in any operations similar to the or any of the operations capable of being undertaken, carried on, or maintained by this Company, though undertaken, constructed, or maintained by any other person or company:

(x.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money, with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, in such manner or form and by such means as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property or any portion thereof, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or the acceptance, endorsement, or issuance of promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and to mortgage and pledge any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities or indebtedness:

(y.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, incorporation, establishment, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, or placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise dealing with or disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property, or assets, or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered in and about the formation of the Company or in or about the conduct of its business, either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(z.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, and securities:

(z1.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(z2.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(z3.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(z4.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; provided that nothing in all the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(z5.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(z6.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
